Self Confidence

I believe self confidence is the most important trait we can obtain. We work all our life to improve ourselves daily. These are a few things I tell myself over and over.

I believe in myself. I believe in those who work with me. I believe in my friends. I believe in my family. I was always taught that the families who play and pray together "stay together". I love all my family and will always hold them close to my heart.

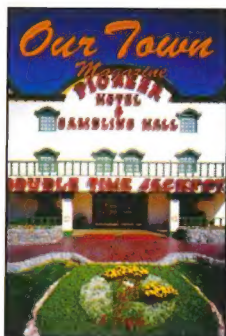

I believe that God will lend me everything I need with which to succeed if I do my best to earn it through faith and honest service.

I believe that success is the result of intelligent effort and does not depend upon luck or sharp practices or double crossing friends, fellow men or my staff.

I believe I will get out of life what I put into it, therefore I will get out of life exactly what I put in to it, I will be careful to conduct myself toward others as it would want them to act toward me. I have pledged myself to succeed in life and know that success is always the result of conscientious and efficient effort.

Roosters...Homemade Country Cooking

Remember those great meals only Grandma or Mom could make? Rooster's Restaurant provides the atmosphere and homemade food that make guests feel like they've gone home for a visit.

Rooster's Restaurant is owned and operated by Ken and Pam Wooten. This is a family business; you'll see their son, Chad busing tables on weekends and Ken is often seen cooking in the kitchen or busing tables himself while Pam is the hostess and cashier. "Being the hostess and cashier, I have the opportunity to insure our customers' meal and service is to their expectations," said Pam Wooten. "We don't want to wait until they leave to find out they're unhappy, we want our customers to feel like they're at home in our restaurant."

Rooster's recently redecorated to add more booths at their customers' requests. "Roost wherever you wish" is the seating sign you see during the week and during the busy weekends you find the sign reading "Please wait to be roasted". Either way you can have your choice of seating at either a booth, table or at the counter. Rooster's is appropriately decorated like a country kitchen with roosters everywhere, many of which were gifts from their customers. Even the restrooms are homey, each decorated with a different country flair.

Daily breakfast specials, starting at $2.95 include Apple-stuffed French toast, breakfast burrito and pork chops and eggs. Nine skillet, 12 omelets and eggs benedict are among the barnyard delights offered starting at $3.75. If it's pancakes, waffles or French toast you prefer, they have a large variety of the sweet stuff to choose from. Breakfast is served all day.

If lunch is your preference, Rooster's has a large selection to accommodate your taste buds. Whether it's a burger, cold sandwich, hot sandwich, soup, salad or their lite fare menu, there's sure to be something for everyone. They even offer "Little Varmint Grub" for kids under 12 or over 55; You have your choice of peanut butter and jelly sandwich, spaghetti's or chicken nuggets, just to mention a few. Sirloin tips and noodles, New England pot roast and chicken pot pie are a few of the daily lunch specials offered. Lunch specials start at $5.95 and include soup or salad.

Rooster's is located at 1547 Mohave Drive and can be seen from Highway 95. They are open daily from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m., so come on by and experience their family atmosphere and delicious home cooked meals for yourself.

America is the Greatest

The ultimate compliment. My heart fills with overwhelming pride when someone from another country says, "America is the greatest. there is no other place in the world I would rather raise my children." these are the words of Dr. Taj Momin.

Born and raised in Pakistan, Dr. Momin received his credentials in medicine from the University of Sind, in Pakistan. He then opened and ran his own private practice for a period of 8 years. However because of political situations, Dr. Momin's brother, Akbar, who had already made his home in Houston, Texas persuaded him to consider making the United States his home. After numerous visits Dr. Momin choose to continue his studies in New York, and served his residency at Wilson memorial.

The decision then was made by he and his wife, Faron, to bring their two children, a son Faray 15 years old and their daughter Farrah 10 years old, to Bullhead City to make their permanent home.

Dr. Momin is a member of The American Board of Internal Medicine, A.M.A. and A.C.P. His hobbies are reading, mostly poetry and philosophy. He enjoys watching football and basketball in his leisure time, and hopes to find time to indulge himself in a few rounds of golf. (This hasn't happened since he and his family arrived in Bullhead City.)

His future plans are to enjoy raising his children, and expanding his practice. He also wants to give back to the community by contributing some of his time in lectures to help educate people at different levels and age groups. Dr. Momin's practice is located at Desert Lakes Family Care Center in the Shumway Professional Building at 5221 S. Hwy 95 in Fort Mohave. For an appointment, please call (520)768-2446.

High Blood Pressure During Pregnancy

By: Jose H. Alvarez, M.D.

Pregnancy-induced high blood pressure, also known as preeclampsia, strikes between 5 and 10 percent of pregnant women. It is not commonly seen in most women with a first pregnancy, teenagers, or those women over 35 years of age. It may be easily detected and treated by early prenatal care. The diagnosis of pregnancy-induced hypertension is made when the woman's blood pressure is 140/90 mm HG or greater and when protein is detected in her urine. Symptoms include headaches, blurred vision, abdominal pain, swollen ankles and rapid weight gain (5 or more pounds a week). Another useful indicator for the diagnosis is a woman's complaint that her rings have become too tight.

Although little is known about what causes this potentially fatal condition or how to prevent it, it can be cured with the delivery of the baby, which nearly in all cases, reverses the illness. For the most part preeclampsia does not occur until late in the pregnancy, usually after the 35th week of gestation. When it does appear earlier with mild symptoms, bed rest is most often prescribed in order to postpone delivery for as long as possible. This gives the unborn baby a chance to develop as much as possible inside the uterus. After the 36th week of gestation, when almost all babies can do well outside the uterus, more advanced cases of preeclampsia are treated by inducing labor and delivering the baby.

If you would like to learn more about the effects of high blood pressure during pregnancy, you may call us at the OB/GYN Women's Centre (520) 758-1010 or visit us at 2055 Highway 95 Bullhead City, AZ.

Nasal Congestion

by Dr. Bailey

Not being able to breathe easily through the nose is an annoying malady, which accounts for millions of physicians visits a year. Other symptoms may include a chronic runny nose, sneezing, itchy nose and nosebleeds, all of which may provide a clue to the underlying problem.

The nasal cavity consists of a passage-way formed by two walls, the midline septum and lateral wall. Everyone has a crooked septum. The cavity is lined by a carpet of mucosa that warms, cleans, and humidifies the air we breathe. The nasal cycle only allows us to breathe easily through one nostril at a time, alternating between nostrils every 30 minutes to 2 hours. In bed, while on your side the nostril that is "down" will be the most congested and is relieved within a few minutes by rolling to the other side.

Based on the normal nasal cycle, the abnormal sensation of nasal congestion is caused by either a unilateral or bilateral condition. The problem can be a structural obstruction such as overly-crooked septum, or excess thickening of the carpet lining due to chronic allergies. However, there are other serious causes for nasal congestion, which can be elucidated with the other accompanying symptoms by your physician.

If nasal congestion is due to a structural problem then surgery is the only relief. This usually entails a twenty minute procedure of straightening the septum and sometimes reducing the lateral wall. Chronic swelling of the lining can be reduced with medication such as topical nasal steroids, antihistamines and/or oral decongestants.

Should you have any questions about your nose, see your physician or contact the Rio Colorado ENT & Facial Surgery Center.

Timely Servicing Can Save You Money & Frustration

Weatherall Heating & Air Conditioning, Inc. would like to remind you that now is the time to get your air conditioning units serviced, as the summer months are quickly approaching. The company has a few tips that may extend the life of your air conditioning unit: Filters should be changed monthly if you are in a heavy construction area or during periods of high winds. Filters only need to be changed every two to three months during normal use and conditions.

It is extremely important to know that your unit is functioning properly before you need it, a service call is the only way to insure this fact. When having your unit serviced make sure the technician checks the coil and all electrical components to avoid unnecessary expenses.

Weatherall Heating & Air Conditioning, Inc. is owned and operated by Phyllis and Wayne Sprandling and has been serving the tri-state area since 1985. They are licensed in Arizona, Nevada and California to do both residential and commercial work.

"We are extremely proud of our experienced staff as our company prides ourselves on our professionalism and high quality of workmanship we provide to our customers," said Phyllis Sprandling. "We are currently expanding our business by offering refrigeration services," she added.

Weatherall offers financing and has technicians available 24 hours a day for efficient and quick service to their customers. Whether you need a service call, a new unit or just want to check out your options, call Weatherall to schedule an appointment or get more information at (520) 768-1505. Their friendly staff will take care of you.

Women Building Our Future

A Born Leader....
A Concerned Citizen

Diane Vick has been a resident of Bullhead City for the past 16 years. When asked if there is somewhere else she would like to live her response is "No, I'm not finished with "this" town yet. I fact I'm just beginning. My five children are grown and living on their own for the most part, with the exception of Erica, a junior at Mohave High School. Now I have time to devote in helping to build a better and stronger community for all."

Although Diane has no complaints about Bullhead City's past, in fact she'll tell you Bullhead City has a fascinating history. From Army tanks roaming about the country side on maneuvers to a tremendous tourist and visitor haven for snowbirds in the winter and the water sports enthusiasts in the summer.

Diane believes in contributing all her extra energy into her community she has grown to love. In the past when her children were young, she coached Little League and soccer and was a leader in the Cub Scouts, also volunteering for various organizations. Currently Diane is active in numerous organizations; President of Mohave High School Booster Club, Vice chairperson of the Mohave Workforce Development Partnership, advisor for Kiwanis sponsored Key Club at Mohave High School, member of Kiwanis Bullhead Morning Club, member of Women's Council of the Bullhead Area Chamber of Commerce, acting member of Ambassadors and she is starting her 15th year on the Bullhead City Elementary School District #15 School Board (of which 3 of those years she served as President).

Diane is now working hard toward being your newly elected Mayor. She believes that all her positive experiences in our city give her insight to some of the problems that need to be addressed. She is concerned about small business and knows that the city needs to support our local businesses and help in anyway to keep expenses low and exposure high.

Diane is a good listener, and wants to hear from all of you about your concerns and challenges that you are facing. Call Diane at 763-9595.

WE'RE ON THE WAY

Fire Agate

by Donn Williams Jeweler

Fire agate that at it's best rivals top opal for mysterious color play - at a fraction of top opal's cost. "It amazes me that the gem has never found a wider audience as an opal substitute," says Ray Lajicek, Equatorian Imports Inc., Dallas.

That time might be now, given the scarcity and expense of both fine black and white opal, plus a noticeable fall from favor of fire agate in the rock shop world.

Fire agate owes its shimmering brilliance and shifting colors to inner layers which have been thinly coated with an extremely iridescent material called "limonite". In fine pieces, this iridescent layering is continuous throughout. More often, however, it runs in patches or when sustained is weak.

All of this makes cutting fire agate one of the less enviable of lapidary tasks. "It is a very difficult stone to cut," says Loreen Haas, Crown Gems, Sherman Oaks, CA. "You have to adhere to the curvature of the color layerings, which severely limits the number of cabochons you can make."

At its best, fire agate has ember-like flashes of red and orange that seem to glow in a manner reminiscent of white-hot coals. The experience of seeing such a stone is, in our opinion, unforgettable and explains at a glance the magnetism of fire agate for men.

Not all fine fire agates resemble burning coals, however strong mixtures of blue and green are also very desirable. Strong blue is the most sought-after color in fire agate after red. The least desirable color everyone agrees, is brown.
